

2009 PHADA Legislative Forum

Washington, DC • September 20-22

This is an exciting and unique time in Washington with the start of a new administration and Congress. There are a lot of possibilities and opportunities available for public housing which is why executive directors need to continue to send a strong message to Congress. PHADA continually urges its membership to contact their elected officials to discuss ways to help ensure adequate funding for public housing. And what better way to contact your elected representatives than by a face-to-face meeting? The 2009 Legislative Forum will focus on helping housing professionals visit Capitol Hill and HUD to meet with key housing policymakers. While the Board of Trustees and committee members are strongly encouraged to attend, PHADA invites all executive directors to participate in this timely two-day meeting.

PHADA/Rutgers Executive Director Education Program (EDEP) classes will be offered September 18–19 (see course schedule below).

PHADA committee members and trustees should plan to arrive in time for meetings that start Sunday morning, September 20. For further information on this year's legislative forum, please refer to the PHADA website, www.phada.org, or contact the Washington office at (202) 546-5445.
